THE INAUGURATION OF OHIO'S NEW GOVERNOR A NATIONAL EVENT

WILSON'S CHICAGO ADDRESS

Makes Appeal for Dissolution of Capital-Labor Prejudices

COMPETITION NECESSARY

Business Future of Country Does Not Depend Upon Government of United States But is Dependent on Business Men.

Chicago, Jan. 12.—Big business, its right to growth and its duties to the country were discussed by President-elect Woodrow Wilson in a speech before the Commercial club of Chicago Saturday night.

"I do not care how big a business grows provided it grows big in contact with keen competition," he said.

The governor made an appeal for a dissolution of what he said were prejudices in this country between capital and labor.

Among Governor Wilson's auditors were bank presidents, railroad presidents and heads of great business enterprises. Seated near him were Governor Deben, a Republican, and Governor-elect Dunne, a Democrat.

Contrary to expectations, Governor Wilson was not spoken to by local politicians in reference to the senatorial situation in Illinois. His only caller was Charles R. Crane, who frequently has been mentioned as a cabinet possibility.

Governor Wilson declared that success of enterprise depends upon the opening up to the rank and file of the nation not only its physical resources but the business credit as well.

Men had testified under oath, he said, to the existence of an inner circle by which credit is obtainable to the exclusion of those against whom that inner circle sought to discriminate.

"I am not drawing an indictment against the banking system," he said. "That already has been convicted. But I do refer to the basis of credit in business."

"I tell you frankly that if I permitted my thoughts to dwell upon the responsibility that will fall upon me I would be daunted. I came here to ask your counsel and assistance."

"The business future of this country does not depend on the government of the United States; it is dependent on the business men. The government cannot breed a temper. It cannot generate thought and purpose."

"Things done under the whip of the law are done suddenly, somewhat reluctantly and never successfully. The hope of America is the changing attitude of the business men toward the things they have to handle in this country."

"I want to take the sternness out of the country. I want to see suspicion dissipated. I want to see the time brought about when the rank and file of the citizens of the United States, who have a stern attitude toward the business men of the country, shall be absolutely done away with and forgotten. Perfectly honest men are now at a disadvantage in America, because business methods in general are not trusted by the people, taken as a whole. That is unjust to you; it is unjust to everybody with whom business deals and everybody whom business touches."

"In the United States they do not believe—I mean the rank and file of our people do not believe—that men of every kind are upon an equality in their access to the resources of the country, any more than they believe that everybody is upon equal terms in his access to the justice of the country."

"It is believed in this country that a poor man has less chance to get justice administered to him than a rich man. God forbid that that should be generally true."

"And then, in addition to all this, we must see to it that the business of the United States is set absolutely free of every feature of monopoly."

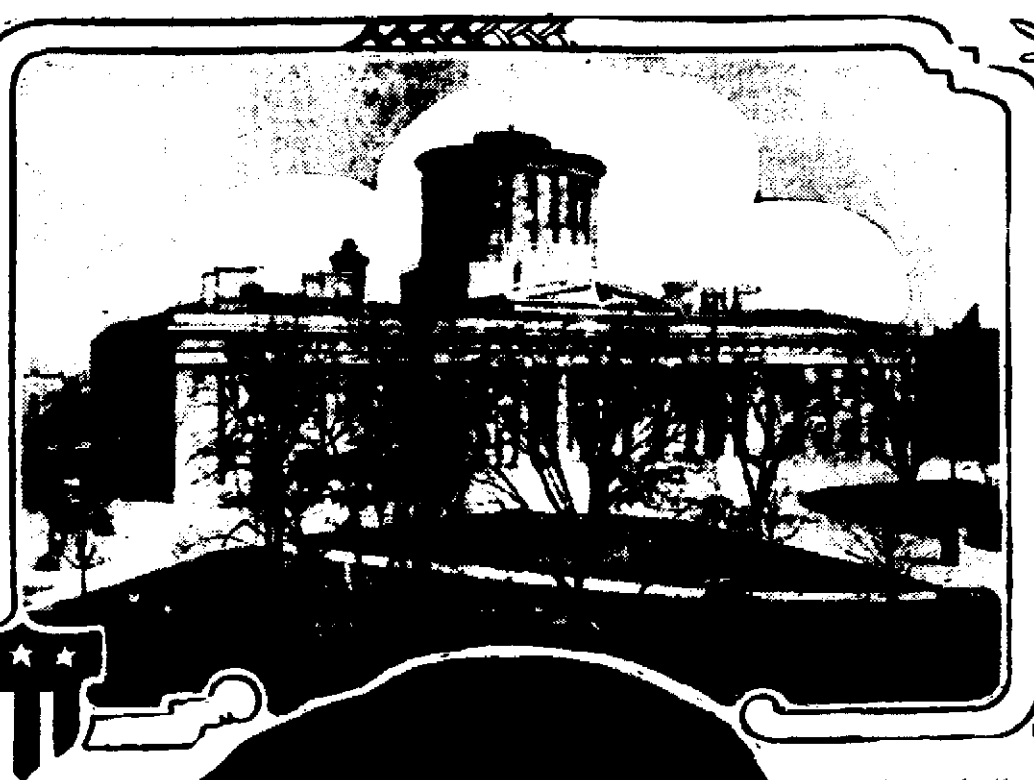

Here Governor Wilson paused, looked about the banquet room and then added:

"I notice you do not applaud that. I am somewhat disappointed, because unless you feel that way the thing is not going to happen except by duress, which is the worst way to bring anything about, because there will be monopoly in this country until there are no important business men who intend to bring it about."

"I know that when they are talking about that they say there is not any."

INAUGURAL ADDRESS OF GOV. JAMES M. COX

To the People of Ohio:

I indulge the hope that endorsement will be given to a change in custom, made this day, in taking from the inaugural address that part which deals entirely with recommendations to the General Assembly, and submitting my views to that body in writing. The growth in the activities and scope of our government entails a legislative message of such length as to encroach on the proprieties of this solemn occasion, and work a distinct inconvenience and discomfort to the organizations and individuals, who in patriotic fervor desire to participate in the arrangements that are to follow.

Every impulse of my nature responds to the highest sense of obligation for the honor now conferred, in compliance with the suffrage expression of the electors, and yet, an appreciation of the responsibilities which go with it, reminds us of human limitations, and inspires the hope that our endeavors along the lines of justice and honesty, in the vision of the Ruler of all governments, will gain the benediction of His favor and assistance.

While the executive station is one of generally accepted distinction, to me it does not bespeak elevation above my fellows. The relation of private citizenship establishes an equal base, but when one assumes the duties incumbent upon this office, a proper conception of the situation makes him the servant of the people, and unless he responds to full appreciation of the superior rights and powers of those he agrees to serve he begins either with false vision or with a species of treason in his heart.

There is much in the theory of the ancients that nothing makes stronger appeal to the Almighty than the congregation of people under peaceful auspices for the purpose of refining government to the needs and advancement of the race. If that were a spectacle of such often in olden days then this day holds every portent for good, because every community is represented in the festivities of the occasion and without regard to class or creed, they exhibit their attachment to our institutions of government.

Ohio is a wonderful state and rich in the traditions that inspire a proud citizenship. Her fertile soil, picturesque beauties and delightful climate, attracted to her borders a sturdy race of people.

CLAUDE MEERER
Chairman Inauguration Committee.

ESTABLISH STATION AS A DEFENSE

Washington, Jan. 12.—The first formal move toward making the United States a station at Guantanamo, Cuba, an impregnable fortress of defense for the Panama Canal was taken today when orders were issued directing a board of officers of the army and navy to visit the station immediately for final approval of the elaborate plans of defense prepared by the Joint Board upon data furnished by the army and navy war colleges. This board will go to Guantanamo on January 20, on the Mayflower, in charge of Major-General Leonard Wood.

Columbus, Jan. 12.—At a session which lasted 20 minutes the lower House of the General Assembly met today, transacted several matters of business, including the administering of the oath of office to Representative J. B. Winans of Lake county, who was ill last week, and appointed several attaches. Adjournment was taken until ten o'clock on Tuesday because of the inauguration.

The Senate was in session about half an hour and during that time received its last official message from Governor Harmon. This announced the appointment of Jacob H. Perkins, Cuyahoga county, as member of the State Board of Agriculture.

Lieut. Governor Hugh Nichols entered upon his second term after brief preliminaries. The oath of office was administered by Judge Johnson of the Supreme Court.

The inauguration ceremony proper occurred in the rotunda of the state capitol at 11:30 a. m.

JAS. M. COX OHIO'S NEW GOVERNOR

Sworn Into Office in State House Rotunda at Noon

MOTHER WAS PRESENT

Great Crowds in Capital City to Witness the Inauguration are Greeted by First Sunshine in Weeks.

Columbus, Jan. 12.—With the firing of seventeen guns, following the administration of the oath of office, James M. Cox of Dayton, today was proclaimed governor of the State of Ohio, succeeding Governor Judson Harmon. Judge John E. Sater of the United States District court presided at the inaugural ceremonies, and Chief Justice Shauck of the Supreme Court of Ohio, administered the oath of office.

The scene attending the inauguration was most impressive. On the stand in the state house rotunda with Governor Cox was his mother, Mrs. Eliza Cox, his daughter, Helen, Miss Genevieve Clark, daughter of Speaker Champ Clark of Congress, members of the governor's staff, state officials, the justices of the Supreme court in their long, flowing black robes, members of both branches of the legislature, and people prominent in society life of the capital.

To emphasize the importance of this governmental change, impressive exercises have been programmed for the day and thousands of his fellow citizens from all parts of the state were in Columbus to witness the ceremonies.

With the arrival of early morning trains inauguration crowds began to pour into the city—military organizations, political clubs, special excursion trains, following each other at the union station in rapid succession.

Rarely has a finer inauguration day, from a weather standpoint, dawned upon Columbus. Crisp winter air, just cold enough to put life into people and give the flush of health to their cheeks, bright sunshine and dry streets, left little to be desired meteorologically, and Director Kinnear's proposition to coat the pavements along the line of march with sawdust to give the marchers safe and dry footing was unnecessary. Governor Cox's good luck that has now become characteristic, followed him in the matter of weather for his inauguration.

Ascertaining that the demand for seats in the grandstand would far exceed the supply in the stand erected in Broad street the inaugural committee secured another stand Saturday and had it erected on High street in Capitol square.

Sunday night the line of march through High street was roped off by the police, so that it was an easy matter to keep the crowds back, and with the street cars detoured to other lines, it was possible for the marching companies to maintain company fronts instead of resorting as usual to the column-of-fours line in order to make way through the obstructed streets.

The parade, which was the central outdoor feature of the inauguration, started at 1:15. Beginning at Spruce and High street it moved south, in High to Main, east to Main to Third, north in Third to Broad and west in Broad to High—the point of disbandment.

The inauguration ceremonies proper occurred in the rotunda of the state capitol at 11:30 a. m.

The Franklin County Democratic Club will keep open house all day at the Southern hotel for visiting Democratic clubs. The Elks will receive members of that order at the Elks' club in East Main street, and the Eagles at the localerie.

BIG DELEGATION PRESENT FROM LICKING CO.

WORK ON NEW $85,000 MASONIC TEMPLE WILL BE STARTED ABOUT MIDDLE OF MARCH

Monday night the stockholders of the Newark Masonic Temple Company will hold their annual meeting and at this time also the regular meeting of the directors of the company will be held.

Among the matters that will come before the directors at their meeting will be the letting of the contracts for the heating, ventilating, plumbing and lighting of the $85,000 temple which cost $5,000 exclusive of the lot for which the company paid $17,000. The completion of the building will mark the fruition of the hopes and efforts of the Masons of the city extending over a period of many months in duration.

The movement for a Masonic temple was first started by the two Blue Lodges of the city on January 11, 1911, when it was proposed that the will be built on the corner of Church and North Fourth streets.

The excavations and foundations have been finished, the plans of Architect Vernon Redding of Mansfield have been finally accepted and Hand-say & Son, the Zanesville contractors expect to start work on the superstructure of the big building about the middle of March.

When completed the building will

GRANDMA USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN FADED, GRAY HAIR

Mixed With Sulphur It Makes Hair Soft, Beautiful; Cures Dandruff.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and abundant with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or straggled appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But the brewing at home is messy and out of date. Nowadays skilled chemists do this better than ourselves. By asking at any drug store for the ready-to-use product called "Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get a large bottle for about 50 cents. Some druggists make their own, which is usually too sticky, so insist upon getting Weyth's, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, feverish itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says his customers insist on Weyth's Sage and Sulphur, because they say it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. Do this at night and by morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and abundant.

To the north of the retiring rooms and with an entrance to the dancing floor will be a roomy reception room with a large open fire-place and furnished with chairs and couches.

The third floor of mezzanine, second floor will be given over to club rooms and to a large balcony overlooking the ball room. This balcony, which will be used for a banquet hall, will seat about 200, the service being had from the kitchens in the basement by two electric dumb waiters. A doorway will lead from the ball room to the balcony. In the southeast corner of this floor will be a special balcony for orchestra purposes. This will be large enough to accommodate the largest orchestra.

The two upper floors of the building will be fitted up as lodge rooms, that of the Blue Lodge in the north and that of the Chapter, Council and Commandery in the south. Both rooms will have stages at the east end, will be provided with large balconies and with recesses for the installation of pipe organs.

The temple will be of fire-proof construction throughout and will have two fire-proof stairways, one leading to Church street and one to Fourth street. The main entrance will front on Fourth street and here an elevator will be installed. By means of the ventilating system the air in the lodge rooms can be changed every six minutes.

The Newark building will be a model of its kind, the plans being a combination of all that the architect and building committee found best after making a number of trips and inspecting similar buildings in all parts of the state.

MUST EXPLAIN HIS ACTIONS TO POLICE DEPT.

The police department is seeking Oscar Faatz, who is being held responsible for the blaze at 29 East Railroad street at 8 o'clock Saturday night when a quantity of clothing and a rug was damaged by a small blaze. The fire was extinguished before the arrival of the department.

The firemen were told that Faatz had an engagement at the address given above and flew into a rage when he found that his friend had failed to keep the appointment. He chased the woman who lived there into the street and seized a number of garments and tossed them into the stove. After the clothing blazed properly, he tossed them on the floor and departed.

Passersby ran into the house and threw the burning clothing from a window while some one else called the fire department. The loss was small but the police department want Faatz to explain his action.

"I don't care how big a particular business gets, provided it grows big in contact with sharp competition, and I know that a business based upon genuine capital which has not a drop of water in it can be conducted with greater efficiency and economy than a business that is loaded with water."

Touching on conservation, he said: "A policy of reservation is not one of conservation."

Applause greeted this statement, and he added that the government of Washington had been "suspicious of everybody who approached it for water power rights and the privileges of conservation generally."

The governor proclaimed a policy of accessibility to the raw materials of the country to everybody on the same terms. A conservation policy, he declared, should be free from discrimination.

"Law ought to be based upon a promise that only the man exceptional in character is going to circumvent the law," he continued. "If only the crooks tried to circumvent the law not very much law would be necessary. But there are some men who have permitted themselves to circumvent the law who are not crooks."

Concluding, the Governor said the nation had "taken a change of venue" and now "the government case was to be tried before a jury composed of all the people."

DR. TURCK ON BRAN.

Dr. Fenton B. Turck of Chicago, authority on diseases of the stomach, recommends the use of a half cupful of bran with a meal as a remedy for dyspepsia or constipation. I have especially advised the use of bran with rice, to overcome its tendency to constipation, and to make up the deficiency of rice in protein. Dr. Turck is, I think, incorrect in saying that bran contains no nutriment. All stockmen know that bran is nutritious. It contains, besides a small percentage of starch, a large percentage of gluten and all the mineral elements of nutrition in assimilable form. Bran may be eaten regularly with cereals.

OUR GOVERNOR'S INAUGURATION A NATIONAL EVENT
Not in all Ohio's political history has her people witnessed a gubernatorial inauguration of as widespread interest throughout the nation as that of the induction into office of Governor James M.
Cox at Columbus Monday. Whatever the causes that have made it a national event of unusual prominence the fact stands out that no Governor of any state since the present organization of parties has received the recognition over his inauguration into office as that which is accorded Ohio's Chief Executive of today by the men of eminence throughout the nation.

It has a significance that men of public acumen cannot fail to observe, for James M. Cox is the successor of a great Governor in the person of Judson Harmon, who will pass down in the history of the state to its lasting credit.
There must be a meaning, too,
in this national tribute to Governor Cox that applies to our grand old commonwealth as well as to its honored Chief Executive.
Especially does it mean something to be the governor of a great state when he is the recipient of such unprecedented recognition from the greatest leaders and brightest men of all the other

NEWARK'S GREETING TO GOVERNOR COX
The City of Newark, through its Board of Trade, a commercial organization of more than 600 members, by its Mayor and other city officials, its Board of Education, its Courts and Bar association, its Medical society, its manufacturers, business and professional men, its Labor organizations—Newark, a thriving, progressive and aggressive manufacturing city of 30,000 people in the heart of Ohio, in the home of the ancient Moundbuilders, extends to you, Governor James M. Cox, its compliments and best wishes.
In this expression of good will, party politics has no part. Prior to Nov. 3, 1912, you were a party candidate, but today you are Governor of all Ohio, and Chief Executive of the greatest of all the 48 states in the Union. We unite in expressing congratulations upon your inauguration and in voicing the confident belief that you will use your high office in the interest of the whole people without thought of personal ambition or party policies.
It is with pardonable pride that we point to Newark's continuous growth, due to its splendid factories, including three of the largest of their kind in the world, her schools, churches, stores, newspapers, her civic pride and her natural advantages, all uniting to make this city a fine place in which to live and in which to earn a living.
With the ratification of a new state constitution which will involve much new legislation and perhaps many changes in state and municipal affairs, you accept the governorship at a time when a man of brains and honor and energy is most needed. We have confidence in you, and are glad to give expression of our regard. Newark will welcome you at any time and at all times and we hope you will honor our city frequently by your presence.

THE LICKING COUNTY BANK AND EARLY BUILDERS.

By Chalmers L. Farncomb.
The men who first planned Newark built as only broad minded men could have done. They have done a great work. The financial, manufacturing and business interests are excellent nowhere. We have the foundation of a great city. It remains for a younger generation to take up the work and build upon this site a city that shall rank first.
We must keep ahead. It is better to add to a growing reputation than to rebuild a tottering one. We can make this a city where our children will be contented to live; where they can prosper and enjoy the benefits of our efforts today.
We have much to be proud of, but we must not let our pride turn into contentment. Contentment must be replaced by ambition and, if that ambition is properly directed, Newark can be developed in its various departments until it shall be a model city for the nation.

THE HUMAN PROCESSION
By O. T. Farncomb.
PRINCE ARTHUR OF CONNAUGHT IS THIRTY YEARS OLD TODAY
Prince Arthur Frederick Patrick Albert, only son of the Duke of Connaught, Governor-General of Canada, will celebrate his thirtieth birthday today. There are few more popular princes in Europe than the stalwart cousin of King George V. Tall and erect, he is physically the superior of all the members of the British royal family. He has the true British love of sport, and has hunted big game in the jungles of Africa and the Canadian wilderness. He is a great favorite in the Dominion, where Prince Arthur's dominant traits of democracy and good fellowship are most highly appreciated. His appearance is always a signal for cheers, and the applause is more for the man than for the prince.
Prince Arthur's earliest ambition was to be a watchmaker. He was effectually cured of this desire by his father, who forced the lad to make the rounds with the man who attended to the clocks at Bagshot Park. Too much of a thing was enough for the royal youngster, and in a few weeks he could not look a clock in the face. At Eton Prince Arthur was immensely popular. At Sandhurst he learned to be a soldier, and in 1903 he was drafted to South Africa at the head of a draft of recruits. A severe attack of illness cut short his active military career. He has since served with the Royal Horse Artillery and the Scots Greys.
The Prince has undertaken many foreign missions, as the representative of King Edward and later of King George. As royal envoy, he has attended funerals, weddings and baptisms in most of the countries of Europe and in Japan. He has been invested with the Order of the Black Eagle by the German Emperor, the Order of the Chrysanthemum by the Japanese Mikado, and with numerous other royal and imperial honors. It was recently reported that he is soon to be made a duke by King George. Prince Arthur is as handsome as his lovely sister, Princess Patricia, who is three years his junior.
O. K. Davis, newspaperman, magazine writer and war correspondent, will be the recipient of the congratulations of his journalistic colleagues today on his forty-seventh birthday.

THE NEXT HOLIDAY.
Oh, Christmas Day is past and gone, we saw New Year's depart; and Groundhog Day full will dawn, the day that stirs the heart. So let us wear our Christmas grins and do our shopping now, before the groundhog rush begins—the sanest plan. I saw, Oh, Groundhog Day. I sing your praise throughout the busy town, and if the groundhog bears my lays, I hope he'll jot them down. On Groundhog Day we don't suspend our dietary rules, and gobble rich things without end like forty kinds of fools. No indigestion racks our frames when Groundhog Day is past, we do not need the doctor's games, we do not dope or fast. No slippers come by every mail from climes where slippers grew, no cheerful clumps come up and wail. A groundhog box on you! No presents on a groundhog tree stir up your deadly ire, no foolish Santa do you be, with whistles all afire. Oh, Groundhog Day is safe and sane, a festive day and kind, which doesn't jar your soul or strain your body or your mind. So let us ring the groundhog bell, until the day is over, and may the groundhog spirit dwell with us forever more.

ON SECOND THOUGHT.
Generally speaking, a man is as old as his jokes.
The plan to enter Sim Heckle in the "setter" class at the next dog show is meeting with general approval.
No smart man waits for a woman to get under the mistletoe.
Men are given medals for heroism and devotion to duty, but a woman must content herself with a plain gold ring for the third finger of her left hand.
You doubtless have noticed that, in murder cases, the jury hangs offener than the defendant.
The girl who has a "steady" never devotes much time to the search for four-leafed clover.
A colored man is considered much of a manager unless he can induce some other colored man to do the work for which he was hired and paid.
The housefly not only gets down earlier than the busy bee, but it works harder and stays longer.
When a boy wears long, curly hair, that is a sign the boy's father is the junior member of the firm.
Your time probably is about equally divided between being polite to strangers and rude to relatives.

CHARGES IN
ARE UPHELD
Washington, D. C., Jan. 13.—A verdict of guilty was voted by the Senate on the first impeachment charge against Judge Robert W. Archbold of the Commerce Court. That he had wrongfully influenced the Erie railroad officials to grant him the option of the "Katy-did" culm dump. Conviction on the other twelve charges is not necessary to remove Judge Archbold from the bench. The vote on the first count was 68 against Judge Archbold and 5 in his favor. The Senate then proceeded to vote on the other twelve articles of the impeachment, though the conviction on the first is sufficient to remove him.
The vote against conviction was Burnham, Catron, Oliver, Paynter and Penrose. Absent or not voting were Senators Bacon, Bradley, Briggs, Chilton, Dillibham, Gamble, Gardner, Guggenheim, Heiskell of Arkansas, Jackson, Johnston of Alabama, and Johnston of Texas, Kern, Lea, Massey, Overman, Smith of South Carolina, Smith of Michigan and Watson.
Not guilty was the verdict on the second article of impeachment which charged Judge Archbold with having attempted to secure a fee by settling a case between the Marion Coal Co. and the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad. The vote was 48 to 25 in the judge's favor.
On the third charge the Senate found that Judge Archbold was guilty. This charge embodied alleged undue influence on Lehigh Valley railroad officials in a coal dump deal. The vote was 60 to 11.
The vote on the fourth, charging secret and wrongful correspondence with the railroad attorneys on a case pending before him, resulted in a conviction 52 to 20.
The fifth resulted in another "guilty" verdict. This one charged undue influence, with the Philadelphia and Reading railroad officials to grant a coal land lease to Frederick Warnke. Vote 66 to 6.
The judge was acquitted on the sixth charge, 24 to 45, for alleged corrupt influence with the Lehigh Valley railroad in coal land deals.

PROS. ATTY. JONES
RENDERS OPINIONS TO SCHOOL BOARD
Prosecuting Attorney J. Howard Jones, in an opinion just given has answered four questions propounded by the school board of the Johnstown school board.
The first answer is to the effect that Johnstown is not compelled to spend the entire $22,000 of the bond issue made for the purpose of erecting a four room school house, in case it is found possible to do the work for less. The prosecutor takes the stand that the bond issue was made only upon an estimated cost and that it is not arbitrary.
Mr. Rowe in his second query asks if it is possible to use the money to erect an addition instead of a new building and to this the Prosecutor answered in the negative, stating that the resolution for the bond issue says it is for the purpose of erecting a four room building.
As to whether Johnstown is a village district or a special district, Mr. Jones answers that it is a village district.
In his last query Mr. Rowe asks who is the treasurer of the school funds in a village district and the Prosecutor refers him to Section 4763 of the General Code, which provides that in village districts the village treasurer is the custodian of the school funds.

Mrs. Clarence C. Caley very pleasantly entertained the Cross Country Embroidery club at her home on Thursday from 2 to 4 o'clock. The afternoon was spent in sewing and organizing the club, and the introduction of several new and intricate stitches in embroidery by those skilled in the art, and instruction to those who are just taking up the work. PROF. O. C. LARASON RECOVERING FROM RECENT OPERATION

Prof. O. C. Larason, who was operated upon at the City Hospital last week, continues to improve and it is thought that his recovery will be rapid and complete. Mr. Larason until last fall was superintendent of education at the Boys' Industrial school at Lancaster and before his illness he granted several interviews to the Advocate regarding the situation at the school, which were read with great interest. Statements made by Mr. Larason in these interviews have been substantiated by recent developments in the school. The state board of administration found that severe methods were necessary to control the youths, after its interference had created a condition bordering upon mutiny. It has appointed Captain Hastings of the Mansfield reformatory as superintendent of the school and has advised him to use whatever means he finds necessary to maintain order and discipline. Mr. Larason made a careful study of conditions at the school and is capable of talking authoritatively on the best methods of handling the inmates of the school.

15,000 WOMEN MARCH IN BIG DEMONSTRATION

New York, Jan. 12.—Sixty thousand garment workers on strike in New York for increased pay and better working conditions, marched, singing, through the factory district today and disbanded at Union Square, for an open air mass meeting. Fifteen thousand of the marchers were women. Nineteen girls just released from jail where they were sentenced for interfering with strike breakers, led the line of march. They bore banners demanding the abolition of child labor.

EVANSVILLE SENDS RELIEF. Evansville, Ind., Jan. 12.—Acute suffering and threatened famine in the flooded districts caused the hurried organization of a relief expedition into the inundated districts on the Ohio river and at noon the boat, John S. Hopkins, left provisioned with a week's food supply for five hundred families. The boat goes under the direction of the city of Evansville, and of the Evansville business association.

CHATS WITH THINKING WOMEN by Barbara Boyd

Personal or Impersonal Cooking

A PROMINENT Englishman commenting on us and our institutions says that the food provided in the large hotels is as good as can be expected outside of a small restaurant.

It is a criticism that has more in it than seems, for if most of us were offered the choice of a meal at a large hotel or a small restaurant, would we not take the large hotel? Yet the right kind of small restaurant would in all probability furnish us with a more palatable meal. For in the right kind of small restaurant, one gets personal cookery. And delightful individuality in cooking is as much to be desired as in anything else. All the places that are famous for their cookery are famous because of some personality. They become known through their chef. They are spoken of as Oscar's, or Josef's, or Madame's, or Madame Gruyere's. It is the personality of Oscar, or Josef, or Madame that is the sauce piquante of the cookery there.

It is this lack of personal cookery that makes the food offered in some restaurants and boarding houses so tasteless. It is as insipid as a person without any particular individuality. In certain kinds of restaurants from Maine to California, roast lamb tastes the same, and coffee is the same brown, insipid drink. The cook in these restaurants probably says, "Lamb's lamb," and salts and peppers it mechanically, with her mind on something else, slams it into the oven, and thinks cooking is beastly work anyway and she's going to get another job.

Whereas, the cook who adds personality to her cooking studies her roast carefully, noting its weight and quality, dusts with pepper and salt thoughtfully, to get just the right quantity, adds a bit of this herb, a hint of that spice, watches it assiduously, bastes it frequently, and sends it to the table with joy, knowing it is juicy and tender and has a flavor all its own.

She is putting herself into her work. She is expressing herself through her work. And isn't this more worth while, just for one's own sake, than to go expressionless?

Some of us look upon cooking as menial and beneath us. And we do not care very much what kind of cooking we turn out. But if we are going to do it, why not put ourselves into it? Why not give it personality and individuality and piquancy? Why not let it become famous in our circle, our village or our town? It is worth while to express our best self in whatever medium we take up.

EASTON MAN WILL ASSIST A. R. LINDORF

Succeeding Mr. Frank Linko, who this week assumes charge of the Meyer & Lindorf store at Mt. Vernon, Mr. W. M. Copp of Easton, Pennsylvania, arrived in Newark Saturday evening and this morning accepted his duties as assistant to A. R. Lindorf at the Newark store of the company. Mr. Copp is a man of pleasing personality, and is thoroughly in touch with the requirements of the buying public, having served for ten years as manager and buyer of one of the largest stores in the Pennsylvania manufacturing city. His advent to the Meyer & Lindorf chain of stores is to be commended, as it signifies an advance in the installation of modern store methods, and the local store cannot but benefit by his experience.

Mr. Copp is married and will make his home in this city just as soon as he can find a suitable house.

GIRL SHOT IN HIP; BULLET STILL THERE

"Look out, Lydia! That trigger's cocked," said one of the crowd of girls watching Lydia McKee and Sarah Hoffer, two thirteen-year-old girls, shooting at targets along the creek shortly after noon Sunday.

"No, I guess it isn't," responded Lydia, at the same time reaching down to feel the trigger.

There was a sudden puff, the girl scattered for a moment and then rushed back to the scene of the shooting, when they saw the Hoffer girl lying on the ground, her hand pressed to her hip.

The bullet had taken effect in the fleshy part of the hip, and while the wound was very painful, Drs. Barnes and Shirer, who were called, stated that the girl would soon be out of danger, and that there was no need of removing the bullet.

Both the McKee girl, who resides on Wilson street, and the injured Hoffer girl, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Hoffer of Barker street, are good shots, and spend much of their spare time exhibiting their ability to other girls of the neighborhood. They are both usually very careful, and the accident is attributed to the fact that the girls' companions allowed for his their remarks to such an extent that she really neglected to see that the weapon was properly guarded.

COULDN'T GET CANDY, SO BOY SHOT MOTHER

Pittsburg, Jan. 12.—Leroy Higgins, 11, shot and killed his mother in the bedroom of their home at Monaca near here today. The lad was angered because he was refused five cents to purchase candy. The lad then reloaded the shotgun and going into the yard fired a charge through the wall of the house, leading the police to believe, until the boy confessed, that some other person was guilty of the crime.

Chicago Ordinance Defines Measure of "Loafing" for Bakers

Washington, Jan. 12.—The validity of the Chicago ordinance fixing the size of loaves of bread, was today upheld by the Supreme court in the case of Mathias Schmidinger, a baker, sued by the city for $100 as a penalty for violating it. It was claimed in opposition that the ordinance deprived Poles and foreigners of the privilege of buying large sized loaves.

PLANNING TO HOLD BAPTIST CONFERENCES

The entertainment of three hundred delegates at a State convention of Baptist Young People's Unions to be held April 23 and 24, is being planned by the Fifth street Baptist church branch of the organization. The society voted at its meeting last night to extend an invitation to the other unions of the state, subject to ratification by the church board which will discuss the matter on Wednesday evening. The state officials are anxious to hold the convention in the vicinity of Newark, inasmuch as during the first week of April there will be a ministerial retreat conducted at Granville for Baptist ministers, and this would make the securing of additional talent for addresses and leaders of discussions convenient. The program planner includes some noted speakers, from Ohio and adjoining states, and would bring Newark's hospitality to the attention of visitors from all parts of the state.

Takes Courage To Win

No half-hearted "stab" at anything is likely to succeed. Having the "nerve" to do a thing is based on sound physiology.

"Nerve" includes clear, intelligent, concentrated thinking, plus courage.

But—brain and nerves must be properly fed—nourished—or the "courage to win" is likely to fail.

A SOUR, GASSY, UPSET STOMACH

"Pape's Diapepsin" Regulates Your Stomach and Ends Digestion in Five Minutes.

Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; you head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Diapepsin and in five minutes you truly will wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion, if your food is a damage in need of a help, remember the quick, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.

DR. THOMAS WILL LEAVE WEDNESDAY

The farewell sermons of Dr. J. Morrison Thomas, pastor of the Plymouth Congregational church, yesterday attracted large congregations to both the morning and evening services of the church. Dr. Thomas will leave on Wednesday to assume the pastorate of the Ravenswood (Chicago) Congregational church, one of the most influential institutions of that denomination in the Illinois metropolis. His departure from Newark will be sincerely regretted, as well as in the taking from the ranks of Newark fingers, the person of Mrs. Thomas, one of the sweetest souls this city has ever known. Both Dr. Thomas and his family take with them the everlasting gratitude of local Congregationalists for their Christian influence, and the early will wishes of the entire city for their success in the western church.

COMMISSION FORM WILL BE THEME OF TALK

Discussion of the various phases of commission government will be the entertainment offered by the Brotherhood of the First M. E. church at their dinner in the church parlors tomorrow evening, and the act that Newarkites are considering in adoption of this method of civic control under the provisions of the new state constitution should bring out a large number of men.

An oyster supper, price 25 cents, is to be served in the church parlors at 7 o'clock, and the program, Prof. H. J. Dickerson of the High School faculty, will discuss briefly the possibilities of the commission plan.

He will be followed by George F. Rudisill, who was responsible for starting the agitation for its consideration in this state and who has a national reputation as an orator and student of civic affairs. Mr. Rudisill's study will be analytical and he will answer any questions submitted to him regarding the possibilities of the feasibility of the adoption of commission government in Newark.

COLUMBUS MAN WAS TAKEN ILL

John Robert, 29, planning Columbus as his home, was taken ill Monday morning at 7 o'clock in front of the trust building. He was removed to the City Hospital in the ambulance of Elyzer and Bradley and was now lying in room 10. Robert stepped into the entrance of the building and asked an elevator boy to take him to a doctor's office. He was told that none of the physicians had reached their offices and he left the building. He stepped to the subwalk in front of the entrance and was helped across the street by a woman who called to a friend to get him to a hospital. A physician was summoned but failed to find anything wrong with him.

WILL URGE THE COMMISSIONERS TO ACT IMMEDIATELY

Lawyers, doctors, merchants and manufacturers will call upon the board of county commissioners at its meeting on Wednesday morning to urge the commissioners to accept at once the offer of the court of appeals to make Newark one of its four headquarters towns. The delegation will be headed by Fred C. Evans, president of the Board of Trade and by R. F. McDonald, City Solicitor. Rodette Jones and Charles L. Flory, the latter three composing the committee appointed by the bar association to urge the commissioners to immediate and favorable action in the matter.

The business and professional men of the city are aware of the fact that the procrastination in this matter has given rise to the rumor that Licking county does not want the court and is unwilling to furnish it with the necessary accommodation.

In a recent interview Frank Mar-

My Vernon paper, Judge Frank Mar-

The court will be in but four of the fifteen counties in the Fifth district and the business men of the city are determined that, if possible, the court be offered suitable accommodations in Newark.

Among the members of the legal profession there seems to be but little doubt that if it so desires the court can find the local commissioners to furnish accommodations, but it is well known that this will not be the disposition of the judges, especially since other counties are making their strongest bids for the location of the court.

To the Advocate today, local business men expressed surprise that the matter had been delayed so long and were at a loss to account for the reason or source of anything but a speedy and favorable action on the part of the commissioners.

Francis R. Morrison, one of the aggressive advertising writers of Cleveland, was a local business visitor of this morning.

Miss M. S. Sanders of the Licking County Jail, who it was feared would be forced to have a finger amputated because of a bad poisoning, is reported out of danger and the finger will be saved. The infection was induced by the tearing of a hang-nail.

Pastor Russell at Washington Temple
Discusses Second Text Quoted on Union Depot Posters—Millennium Is Beginning, He Avers—Greater Blessings to Follow Shortly—Momentary
Chaos Seen to Yield to the Prince of Peace, Who Will Inaugurate Reign of Righteousness and Love.

Washington, D. C., January 12.—Pastor Russell preached this afternoon at the Temple, corner Thirteenth Street and New York Avenue, to a large congregation. He made the rather startling declaration that the Millennium is already here; that chronology proves that we have been living under some of its blessings for the past thirty-eight years; and that our modern conveniences and progress are attributable to the beginning of the rolling away of the curse, and the substitution of the Divine blessing.

The reign of Messiah for a thousand years will not only blind Satan and hinder his further deception of mankind, but will also bring light, knowledge, illumination, to every corner of the earth. The speaker pointed out the beginning of these blessings as already with us; but they are only the faint drawings of the greater light which will flood the world when the great Sun of Righteousness, Emmanuel's Kingdom, shall be manifested above the horizon.

Yet we must not expect all sunshine. A great cloud is immediately before us, with a terrific storm, which will convulse the present order of things—social, financial, political and religious. The momentary chaos will yield to the Prince of Peace, who will then take to Himself His great power and reign. He will say to the raging winds of strife and the billowy waves of trouble, "Peace, be still!" and there will be a great calm, even as was illustrated on the Sea of Galilee.

The storm, the Pastor stated, is sometimes spoken of as a manifestation of Divine wrath and indignation; but he explained that the great Jehovah is the synonym for Justice, and Messiah is the synonym for Mercy. Justice operates along the lines of cause and effect. Whosoever sins shall suffer. From this viewpoint, he explained, the trouble which will precede the establishment of Messiah's Kingdom will be the natural, logical result of the operation of the laws of Justice.

Humanity is not using the blessings of this Millennial Morning in that noble and generous manner in which they should be used. Selfishness prevails everywhere, amongst rich and poor. The earth's present abundant supply for men's needs should bring contentment to high and low, rich and poor; but it is bringing the reverse, because the natural heart is full of selfishness, depravity. The noble image of the Creator has been considerably lost, though no one is totally depraved.

God will allow this ferment of selfishness to lead on to its natural results, in order to demonstrate to mankind the fallacy of that principle—in order to prepare men to appreciate the reign of righteousness, equity, mercy and love, about to be inaugurated. The lesson, he said, will be a terribly severe one—but not too severe, if it teaches mankind the purposed lesson of the sinfulness of sin, selfishness, meanness and the beauty of holiness, righteousness, harmony with God.

"The Desert Shall Blossom."
Pastor Russell took as his text Isaiah 35:1, which declares, "The desert shall rejoice and blossom as the rose." This prophecy is having a literal fulfillment now in our Western States. He told of what he had seen in Oregon and Washington—beautiful groves bearing delicious fruits growing where once nothing but sage brush grew—on land supposed at one time to be practically valueless. The application of water has wrought a marvelous transformation, or miracle. It might be described just as the Prophet portrays. Streams break forth under the guidance of human intellect, operating the marvelous machinery and implements of our day. He witnessed further transformations in Colorado and California.

Our Government is co-operating with our intelligent fellow-citizens of the West in the fulfillment of the Divine prophecy. Although the work is only in its infancy, the results are already marvelous. Some of the fruits are so beautiful, so luscious, that we may well wonder if there was anything superior to the Eden of old, or if the Paradise promised to be established in all the earth will be able to bring these fruits to a fuller perfection.

A similar work of reclamation of the desert is going on in old Arabia. Shortly the land of the "Arabian Nights" will realize in a natural way far greater wealth and far more wonderful changes than those of the fairy tales which enchanted our childish imagination.

The great Sahara Desert, too, has been examined by engineers. They ascertain that a considerable portion of its vast area is below sea level. At a comparatively small cost it can be inundated and made to rejoice with the remainder of the world, by sharing in the Millennial blessing. The Scriptures prophesy also that the Dead Sea will be connected with the ocean, and that region become once more prosperous.

Still More Wonderful Things.
Pastor Russell, dealing with the context, pointed out that it tells the whole story. He applied Verse 3 to the present time, declaring that he was seeking to carry out its command, "Strengthen ye the weak hands and confirm the feeble knees. Say to them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong, fear not: behold your God will come with vengeance, even God with a recompense; He will come and save you."—Verses 3, 4.

The Church is here addressed—not the world. True, Messiah's coming is to bless the world, but before the blessing can come to the world, the Elect Church must first be gathered. By the "change" of the First Resurrection, the Elect will cease to be of the human nature and will become spirit beings. "Like unto the angels," but higher—"partakers of the Divine Nature."

This Elect class, the Pastor declared, is Scripturally called "The Bride, the Lamb's Wife." In all of God's dealings with humanity this class is to have the preeminence, as Spiritual Israel. They are not all children of Abraham by nature, he said, but are his children by faith; for Abraham typically was the Father of the Faithful. Abraham represented Jehovah, as Isaac typified the Son, Jesus, and Rebecca, Isaac's bride, typified the Church. The first of this company was gathered from the natural seed of Abraham, but the company as a whole has been completed out of every nation, people, kindred and tongue.

None, however, but saintly, holy ones can be members of this Elect class. After its completion, the Divine blessing will extend through it to natural Israel, and through them to all nations again. The blessing then to be bestowed, however, will not be of the same character. They will all be earthly blessings—the life and health in Paradise will all be earthly. Only the Church of the First-born, begotten of the Holy Spirit, know; and only such can go on to make their calling and election sure and attain the birth of the Spirit in the resurrection. All others remaining of the human nature will get the blessings which God has provided for humanity. These, the Pastor said, will surpass anything of which the human mind has ever yet conceived.

Opening the Blinded Eyes.
The miracles which Jesus did at His First Advent were merely little illustrations of the much greater work which He will accomplish at His Second Advent. He explained this to the Apostles, saying, Greater works than these shall ye do. (See John 14:12.) It is a greater work now to open the eyes of human understanding to appreciate the Divine Character and Plan than to open the natural eyes, as Jesus did. So in the future Jesus and His Church, during the thousand years of Messiah's Kingdom, will open blinded eyes of understanding, unstopped ears that have long been deaf to the Truth, loose to sing praises to God tongues that have never yet experienced that blessing. Moreover, as our context declares, the lame will be strong and leap for joy.

We are not disputing that all the lameness, deafness, ailments of the present time, will quite disappear during Messiah's reign of a thousand years. We are merely laying emphasis on the fact that the greater blessings will come also; the lamenesses, for instance, of human weakness and frailty incident to the fall and its hereditary influence. All this lameness will be done away with—gradually.

What a new aspect earth will wear when Paradise shall bloom, when righteousness shall prevail, when sickness and sin, sorrow and pain and dying shall gradually fade away before the touches of the glorious sunlight of that New Dispensation!

"A Highway Shall Be There."
The context declares that then a Highway of Holiness shall be established. The Hebrew word signifies a public thoroughfare. It will be distinctly different from the broad road of the present, which is a downward one. The Highway will be an upward walk. It will be distinctly different also from the narrow way and rugged path of the Church of the present time. Instead of being a rough, thorny way, beset by trials and difficulties, liable to attacks of the world, the flesh and the Adversary, it will be the reverse of this.

No lion and ravenous beast will be there. The beastly propensities and appetites will no longer have power to entrap, ensnare and devour the poor human family. All stumbling-stones of error will be cleared out of the way, whereas now the Christian's pathway is full of them. Indeed, all of our six hundred creeds are more or less stones of stumbling, more or less indicate the doubt, perplexity and uncertainty in which God's people have been traveling.

We thank the Lord for the prospective change to be brought in by Messiah's Kingdom. Satan will then be bound and no longer allowed to plant the seeds of discord, strife, error, misunderstanding of God, nor be permitted to water these seeds. On the contrary, every influence then will be favorable, as now every influence is unfavorable, to those who would walk in the path of justice, equity, righteousness.

Whither will that Highway lead the traveler, do you ask? Will it lead him to the same glory, honor and immortality to which the narrow path of sacrifice and self-denial now leads the consecrated people of God who walk in the footsteps of Jesus? Oh, no! the narrow path of sacrifice will then be at an end, having accomplished the purpose for which it was designed, or permitted the selection of the Bride class, Messiah's joint-heirs, or Cabinet, in His Kingdom.

The Highway which Messiah's Kingdom will open up to all the children of Adam—to the non-elect—will lead them back to perfection. When God made Father Adam, He made him a man, not an angel—an earthly being, not a heavenly being. God crowned Adam with earthly glory and honor, and set him as king over the earth, its fish, fowl, beasts. God changes not. His purpose is the same today as in the beginning. For six thousand years God has allowed humanity to propagate and go down into the sleep of death, there to await a better time future. Meantime God sent forth His Son and redeemed mankind, and then glorified the obedient Savior. Since then, God has been electing a saintly few to be Messiah's joint-heirs. The next thing in order is the blessing of all the remainder of Adam's race by Restoration—restoration to the earthly glory and honor originally intended, but lost by sin and redeemed at Calvary.

Let this thought come to our hearts and minds as in the future we look at the Union Depot and read the inscription there: "The desert shall rejoice and blossom as the rose." So doing, our hearts will be drawn nearer to the Lord. Our increasing faith will make increasing obedience more nearly possible. And love for our Creator will come in to sanctify our hearts and to assist us in showing forth the praises of Him who hath called us out of darkness into His marvelous light.

The Prophet declares respecting the hosts that will pass over the Highway of Holiness, that they are all the ransomed of the Lord—the redeemed world of mankind. He says, "The ransomed of the Lord shall be restored and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads; they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing will flee away." And Jesus adds that there shall be no more sighing, crying and dying, because all the former things of sin and death shall have passed away. He that sitteth upon the Throne shall make all things new.—Revelation 21:4, 5.

Jesus a Ransom For All.
Once in our ignorance we supposed that Jesus died only for the Church—that only the Bride class, the Little Flock, were to be ransomed by the precious blood. Now we see differently—that God's Love and the provision He has made in Christ are worldwide. We knew that the Scriptures stated the matter broadly, but we looked through the narrow spectacles of the creeds of the Dark Ages. Thus we disregarded the words of the Apostle, "God . . . will have all men to be saved, and to come to the knowledge of the Truth. For there is one God, and one Mediator between God and men [mankind], the Man Christ Jesus, who gave Himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time." (1 Timothy 2:3-6.) How strange that we could have read these precious words over and over again without seeing their real import! How doubly strange, when we so well know that few of our friends, relatives and neighbors belonged in any sense or degree to the saintly Little Flock, the Elect!

How glad we are that in this Morning time when the light is shining in upon all subjects, and when all mankind are learning to think more connectedly, we may enjoy the clearer light of God's Word! It is so very broad in one sense of the Word, and yet so very narrow, in another, that it meets every condition.

None but the saintly followers in the footsteps of Jesus can enter the Kingdom class. Then the wideness of God's Mercy will operate, through the Kingdom class on the spirit plane, to give all humanity a blessed opportunity to come to a knowledge of God. As they shall experience the blessings secured for them through the "Ransom for all," they will have the privilege of going up, up, up the Highway of Holiness, during the thousand years, to its end.

The reward will be human perfection and a world-wide Eden, gradually attained under the assistance of the Church in glory, the Kingdom. Ultimately, God's blessing and everlasting life will be given to all the willing and obedient. Even the wilfully wicked will not be tortured eternally, but will be destroyed with an everlasting destruction from which there will be no recovery. Ah! now we see the glorious prize before the Church and the necessity for her narrow way of trial, testing! Now do we see that the wideness of God's Mercy is as the wideness of the sea, in the provision that, as all came under the reign of sin and death, through Father Adam, all may come under the blessed reign of righteousness and life everlasting through the Redeemer, the Second Adam!

It is from that destruction toward which all are tending that Christ has redeemed all. And His Kingdom will be for the very purpose of destroying the broad way and rescuing the poor degenerates born in sin and shapen in iniquity, who were heedlessly going the downward way. In the Highway there will be no lions and ravenous beasts of licensed saloons and other evils to tempt, to entrap; and Satan, the great Adversary, will be bound during that thousand years.

What a glorious change from the present time! Everything then will be helpful. Instead of evil spirits to attempt to mislead and deceive, will be the glorified ones on the spirit plane to assist and direct. Nevertheless, we see, according to the Scriptures, the importance of the various trials and difficulties of the present time. God is now seeking a very special class; and in order to be fitted and prepared for His service, they must be able to stand these various tests.

CHORAL WILL MEET TUESDAY AT 7:30 P. M.

Rehearsals will commence at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday evening for the production of "Death and Life," Gounod's postlude to his masterpiece, "The Redemption," which is to be sung by the Newark Choral Union early in March. The resumption of these rehearsals should be of interest to Newark singers, and it is to be hoped that as many as possible will take advantage of the opportunity to gain the benefit of the training such a production offers them, especially inasmuch as it is under the direction of so capable a leader as Prof. J. M. Priske, of Denison University.

The Denison vocalist is tendering his services, absolutely without charge, merely to aid in creating a musical atmosphere in this city and his labors should be rewarded by faithful, earnest study by those who enroll for the work. Over two hundred cards were signed, pledging support to the Choral Union, when the matter was agitated two months ago and there are still many of these who have not appeared at the rehearsals to secure their copy of the score.

The music is not difficult, the interpretation needs only careful study, and the result cannot be other than a great success if attacked in the proper spirit. Let everyone help in this work.

DRY BILL TO BE VOTED ON IN SENATE FEB. 10

Washington, Jan. 12.—After two days' debate on whether the Senate had the right to rescind a "unanimous consent agreement" that body late Saturday fixed February 10 as the date for a final vote on the Sheppard-Kenyon bill, prohibiting shipments of liquor into states where prohibition laws are in effect.

An agreement for a vote January 20 asked for by Senator Sanders of Tennessee, was made Saturday, but immediately objected to by Senator Smoot. The fight to rescind the action ended when a motion to reconsider the unanimous consent agreement carried—40 to 17.

Senator Smoot entered objection to a final vote January 20 and Senator Gallinger immediately asked for a vote February 10, to which no objection was made.

FIRST THINGS

The first American-built vessel to make a deep sea voyage, the Trial, was launched 271 years ago today, Jan. 13, 1642. The builder was Capt. Thomas Coytemore, who was also the first commander of the vessel and thus was enrolled as the pioneer deep sea skipper of the New World. The Trial was constructed at Boston and was for the purpose of carrying to the mother country cargoes of fish caught by the fishermen of the Massachusetts Bay Colony. By owing their own ship, they sought to save the freights and middlemen's commissions which had to be paid when the fish was exported in English bottoms. The Trial was roughly and rudely constructed and was of 165 tons burden, with a very high stern and a very low bow. Few people would care to trust their lives to such a craft for even a short voyage in these days, but the Trial successfully crossed the Atlantic, bartered the cargo of fish for sugar and wine and stopped on the return trip at St. Kitt's, in the West Indies, for additional cargo. Says the chronicler: "The whole result, through the Lord's blessing, was a good voyage."

WHEN YOUR HAIR BRUSHES OUT

Your hair is as sensitive as your skin—even more so. It stands up under heavy hats, curling irons, and diseases of the scalp, etc.—But there is a limit. When you comb and brush your hair in the morning, watch for the "TRAILERS" that turn grey, fall out, and comb out with the first morning brush.

You MUST know that there's something wrong. If your hair was in good health, it wouldn't fall out, nature never intended that. There is something wrong at the root of things—the hair needs a restorer. When you are sick you take medicine. That is your first thought. Its turning grey, falling out, are both ways the hair has of "complaining of illness." It can't do it in any other way.—DO YOUR PART. Use HAY'S HAIR HEALTH.

NEWARK GREETING TO GOV. J. M. COX

Not a Single Man Approached Declined to Sign His Name—Paper Sent to Columbus.

The city of Newark, through its many and varied organizations, its school board, its lawyers, doctors and ministers, its labor organizations, its merchants and business men, presented to Governor J. M. Cox, today, a greeting from Newark to Governor Cox.

The greeting from Newark to Governor Cox is published in today's Advocate. It is signed by about 150 firms or individuals, and the only reason that more names are not attached to the paper was that very few were taken to circulate the document. Not a single man, however, declined to sign his name. Every body signed willingly and gladly.

The original paper, bearing a picture of the new governor and the lieutenant governor was taken to Columbus Monday, neatly framed, and was presented to Governor Cox.

PLATFORM IS REAFFIRMED BY GOV-ELECT COX

In Speech at Jackson Day Banquet—Appointees Must Show Efficiency and Integrity.

Columbus, Jan. 12.—"I will give the state of Ohio as good an administration as can be made by the conscience which God has implanted in me," said Governor-elect James M. Cox, Saturday night, speaking to 600 people at the annual Jackson day banquet at the Franklin County Democratic club at the Southern hotel. "I should be unworthy of the high office to which I shall ascend at high noon on next Monday, did I not exact from every appointee the highest qualifications of efficiency and integrity," added the incoming governor, in the next breath.

At the same time the new executive promised by implication that Republicans will have little share in his administration. "While party lines do not necessarily mark lines of efficiency," he said, "I will let it be known that I want to have on guard the men who will understand and respect the responsibility of the party in power."

A firm pledge to enact into law first of all the promises of the Democratic platform was made.

There and now serve notice on the whole state to keep off the track until that platform shall be enacted into law, declared the new governor with marked emphasis.

Throughout his address, Mr. Cox was generously applauded. In introducing him, Toastmaster James Ross sprang a presidential boom for the new 42-year-old governor of Ohio and it was well received.

Tribute was paid to Judson Harmon, Timothy S. Hogan, Secretary of State Graves and other Democratic officers as the speaker proceeded. He held the recent Democratic majorities largely to have been due to their efficient administrations. Of Governor Harmon, he said:

"There may be differences of opinion between us, but I stand with him in the same principles of efficiency and integrity which he has established in the place of Republican inefficiency and corruption." Again speaking of Harmon, he said: "The people have tasted of progressive government under Harmon and they want Cox to carry it on a little further."

Encouragement to the idea of erecting a new state office building was given by the new executive when he came to consider the suggestion made by Mayor Korb in the latter's address of welcome. "We will treat all of Columbus claims fairly," said Cox in speaking of the office building project, "but I warn the mayor that first of all we must put through the Democratic platform."

An Information Bureau In Book Form

The 1913 Edition of the World Almanac and Encyclopedia of Useful Knowledge.

Packed with in the 322 pages of The World Almanac and Encyclopedia for 1913 is a vast compendium of useful knowledge, remarkably inclusive in its scope and at the same time generous as to detail. It is a printed information bureau which answers the thousands of questions raised every day in home, office, and even in the school, bearing on political, historic, scientific, legal, commercial, and other subjects. It is a tabular reference library condensed in one volume, yet so generously yielding information that it corresponds to a library comprising hundreds of volumes. What is the question in your mind? The index gives you the subject and in less than a minute a page is open before you and your answer is there. What is the Hay-Ham story? What were the benefactors of 1912? What have been the World's records? What is the population of Detroit, Mich.? What are the penalties for crime in the various states? What are the Chaplains in the U. S. Army and Navy? What is the Income Tax? What are the Trusts in the United States? These are only some of the great store of information in the book. Art, Music, Literature, Drama, Geographical Research, Electrical Progress, Sporting Records, Marine Discoveries, The Panama Canal Act of 1912, and the New Pension Law of 1912 are but a part of the wide range of subjects covered in the book's inclusive range. Of convenient size, it is carried in the coat pocket and is invaluable to the man who needs a reference library with him. It is a book to read not only his knowledge of general affairs, but also a book of usefulness and general interest. It is not only a reminder, but an educator as well. It is a ready-made library and an authority of the last word. It is compact, it is complete, it is comprehensive. It is a big little book.

THOUSANDS ARE TURNED AWAY AT THE TABERNACLE

Columbus, Jan. 12.—With yesterday's collections at the Sunday tabernacle amounting to $1,734.96, a gain of $430.82 over the collections of the previous Sunday, more than half the sum needed to pay expenses has been raised. The reports show:

Morning	$519.63
Afternoon	$881.73
Evening	$333.60

Total for day	$1,734.96
Total collections to date	$9,170.54
Converts last evening	267
Converts at men's meetings	526
Converts at women's meetings	75
Converts previously reported	372

Total conversions	1,240

Engulfed in a sea of Billy Sunday enthusiasm that resulted in thousands being turned away from the tabernacle at two of the three services, in men and boys clamoring to the top of the building to listen at the ventilators, only to be driven back by policemen, that saw more than 500 men sweep down the aisles and profess conversion at the largest gathering of men who ever sat under one roof in the history of the city, Columbus yesterday afternoon saw a meeting that broke all records for the evangelist.

A meeting that was attended by more than the entire state militia put together, a meeting that turned men away before 10 o'clock in the afternoon and which was missed by more who wanted to hear it than by those who did.

At noon the first audience had not been dismissed when 1,000 men crowded in to sit until the afternoon services should begin. In the afternoon hundreds of women joined their husbands as they could get into the tabernacle and sat superfluous for hours against the opening of the evening service. Sightings were witnessed which men with memories half a century long could not duplicate, which those whose memories had taken around the world had no counterpart for comparison.

It was estimated that at least 10,000 persons went to the tabernacle last night and tried to gain admission. The doors were closed early and the men who stood on guard experienced great difficulty, as they did in the afternoon, in keeping out persons who were determined on entering. Gray-haired men and women who came forward and professed conversion were many. Among those who "hit the trail" last night was "Red," a newspaper, familiarly known to pedestrians on downtown streets.

Men of the Broad Street Presbyterian church will meet at 7:30 tonight for council and prayer in connection with the Sunday evangelistic campaign. This, it was announced, is not a prayer meeting called in connection with the inaugural and designed as a substitute for the gayety expected to prevail at the ball at Memorial hall. Rev. Mr. Sunday last week suggested such a substitute.

Yesterday began with a characteristic service at the penitentiary and included three services for women only, at two of which many were turned away, unable to gain entrance and which resulted in 75 accessions to the list of converts.

VIC DONAGHEY TOOK CHARGE OF OFFICE THIS A. M.

Columbus, Jan. 12.—The office of the auditor of state was turned over to the Democrats at ten o'clock today when the oath of office was administered to Auditor-elect Victor Donaghey by Judge Wilkin of the Supreme court. The keys of the office were then turned over to the new auditor by the retiring auditor, E. M. Pullington.
